

The Indiana do not call list is wonderful. We used to get lots of telemarketing calls and considered turning off the phone. Now we rarely get any and can go about our evenings without the unwanted constant interruption.